“Your Story – Ethics in Public Sector Accountancy”

We need your stories about the ethical challenges you have experienced working as a professional accountant or auditor in the public sector.

The African Professionalisation Initiative (API) is an initiative that seeks to address the shortage of professional accountants and auditors (generally referred to as “accountants”) in the African public sector through partnership with key stakeholders. The initiative seeks to achieve this by providing learning and support tools that are relevant to the African context, to be used for professionalisation efforts in different African countries.
